This also means that if payment is via a monthly payment plan, should the corporation or Trainee(s) cancel before the final session with Accent Pro Institute, the recurring payments will continue to be made until the full tuition payment plan has been paid in full.

Re-scheduling: If the corporation or Trainee(s) need to re-schedule a session, the corporation or Trainee(s) is required to call prior to 24 hours of session start time so that this session may be re-scheduled. Cancellations made by the corporation or Trainee(s) within 24 hours of session start times will be forfeited and will not be able to be re-scheduled. If the Trainer misses a class, for whatever reason, the corporation or Trainee(s) has a 100% guarantee that it will be re-scheduled by the Trainer or substitute Trainer, no questions asked. On the very rare occasion that it is impossible for any Trainer to re-schedule a session to a later date, that session itself will be refunded.
